

Gutt Financial Management
Notice of Privacy Policy and Practices

Gutt Financial Management, LLC (GFM) values the trust our clients have placed in us and we are committed to the responsible management, use and protection of our clients' personal information. We are attentive to our privacy and confidentiality practices and we want you to know how we protect your information. Please take this opportunity to review our Privacy Policy, pursuant to the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act and SEC regulation 5-P.

Gathering Information

As a cornerstone of our financial planning and investment management process we obtain a great deal of private information from our clients. This information provides us with the necessary background to make financial planning recommendations and to help us determine investor suitability.

Sharing Information

As a matter of policy, GFM does not disclose personal information about you to anyone. However, contingent upon your consent, we may provide information to certain organizations or individuals, such as your attorney, accountant, or banking professional.

Safeguarding Privacy

GFM maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to guard your personal information in order to ensure internal, regulatory and legal compliance. We continually examine and update our safeguards to prevent any unauthorized access to your personal information. Should you ever decide to terminate your relationship with us, this information will continue to be protected according to the policies and procedures referred to in this notice.

If you have any questions or concerns about the privacy and security of your information, please call us at 404-237-4188.

Sincerely,

Michael Gutt
